

October 2009

Dear praying friends,

Lately it seems the pressures, resistance, and hostilities of cross-cultural ministry are increasingly buffeting God's servants,— often eroding their ability to cope. Then they are hit by a global financial crisis. We hear many as they cry out to God on their faces and reach out to faithful partners through their letters. Yet some grow weary; weary of deciding whom to turn away, which outreaches to stop, which bills not to pay. Weary of writing about another need, or of getting on a phone, or a plane, to try and find the support needed to continue. And of course churches can grow weary of operating with limited resources and having to turn away another request from another worthy ministry. Likewise, supporters can grow weary of being tapped out, laid off, and hit up – again!

So it is a time of testing for all of us. We have the opportunity to show that declaring God's glory to the nations is not something nice we do when it is convenient. It is something eternally essential we must continue to do through any hardship.

What we are asking of you is that you will pray. Pray confidently asking our heavenly Father to provide for His work around the world. Please pray specifically for our One Another ministry team as we strengthen and encourage the spread of the gospel in Europe and the surrounding regions.

Thank you so much for your faithful gifts and prayers that make this ministry possible.

Blessings,

The One Another Ministry Team
